

Online Resources for Caribbean Travel

Need information about Caribbean travel quickly and easily? Looking for firsthand knowledge about places to visit and places to stay? What about fun things to do while visiting the Caribbean? Safety advice? Weather information? Diving advice?

If you find yourself asking these questions as you plan your upcoming Caribbean trip, then check the list of Caribbean travel forums that are offered below. When it comes to valuable information from travelers just like you, nothing beats Caribbean travel sites.

Caribbean-On-Line.com

Caribbean-On-Line's Caribbean travel forum has been redone, giving it a new look and easier navigation. Now, you can participate in discussions about almost all fifty of the Caribbean islands, with topics ranging from boat rentals to phone calls, how to get to places, and festivals.

Caribbean-on-Line is a corporation, independent from any government, island, or tourism board. The emphasis is on the traveler, so no matter what question you may have about the Caribbean island you wish to visit, this is Caribbean travel forum to check out.

Fodor's Travel Talk Forums

Fodor's includes several travel talk forums of several different tourist destinations. Choose Caribbean and ask your questions about the islands. Below are some recent popular topics posted up in the Caribbean travel forum:

- * Looking for a resort with the MOST amazing swimming pool
- * Secrets Excell: Punta Cana Report
- * Nice San Juan hotel under $200?
